Going of Forbes To the Mainland Leaves Commission In a Bad Hole

CHAIRMAN FAILS TO ITEMIZE MEMORANDA OF NEEDED FUND

Board Needing Definite Information Sends Woodward On Trips About Islands Hunting Data

The board of harbor commissioners is struggling in agony of soul and perturbation of spirit with the task of framing a budget for the legislature that may stand some chance of "getting by". The sudden departure of the chair man, Charles R. Forbes, for the mainland, left the commission in a bad hole, It was the intention of the board to take a trip around the Islands to see what was needed in the way of new wharves and improvements or repairs to old ones, but when the time came, there was no money left to pay the expenses of such a trip. The only member of the commission who could make an island tour was Forbes. He, being also superintendent of public works, could go, and as a matter of fact, he said he would go. But when he went, it was not around the islands; it was to Washington. That didn't help the harbor board. Unitemized Items

Before leaving, however, Forbes wrote out a memerandum of what items the harbor board should include in its budget. But upon inspection, the board found that none of these items was The chairman wanted, for instance, $200,000 for a new whorf at Lahaina, $150,000 for wharf some-where else, a large number of thou-sands for this and more thousands for

All of which was very well and per haps very necessary. But the legislature is composed, particularly this session, of a bunch of hard-headed men who most distinctly want to be shown. The members of the harbor board, upon looking over Chairman Forbes' budget made up their minds that it wouldn't get very far with the legis-lators unless the legislators could be shown not only what was wanted, but why it was wanted and just how no cessury it was. Woodward Gets Busy

And being without funds to go around the islands and see for themeffen what is needed, the commissioners found themselves up a tree. Some-thing must be done, they have decided, and it must be done at once. When Forbes' returns from Washington will

So Acting Chairman Wilbur C. Woodward is hustling around, at the benest of the board, to try to make up the deficiency of knowledge. He is having his men climb down under pier to see what repairs are necessary and has ordered the engineers of the board who are scattered about the Islands to send in as soon as possible reports of what is needed by the Islands in the way of wharves, repairs and general waterfront improvements.

FAMED HINDU POET WILL VISIT HONOLULU

Hawaii expected Rabindranath Tagore, the Hindu poet, to come here fast summer, when he was on his way from Japan to the States, but he took the northern route, and it appeared that he would not be here at all. Now comes the announcement that he will be a passenger for Japan in the T. K. K. steamship Siberia Maru, due from San Francisco for Yokohama Tuesday morning. He will give readings under the auspices of The Footlights, the amateur dramatic organization, it was anyesterday.

Only 450 seats, the maximum num-ber that can be accommodated on the Young roof garden, where the readings will be given, can be sold. Tickets will go on saie at Uusha's music store this morning. No seat reservations will be

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless) WASHINGTON, January 19 - The house committee on rules, which is conducting the hearing of the charges "leak" in administration circles where by many persons profited in the stock shipping circles here and in London was announced later that Sher nsn L. Whipple an attorney of Boston has been invited to take over the work of conducting the probe for the committee and acting as counsel for the committee. This move started a hot fight between the supporters of Whipple and those who wished Samuel Untermyer, the New Yorker, to undertake the task.

At a conference of the committee to make plans for the broadening inquiry, it developed that strong administration forces are at work to have Samuel Untermeyer, the New York attorney, as counsel. The Democrats are reported erging his selection and the Republicans opposing it. Postmaster-General Burleson and Solicitor-General Davis, both regarded as spokesmen for the ad ministration, conferred with the com mittee. The conference broke up with no decision reached.

Boston Lawyer Invited To Con-Reports Reaching Rio de Janeiro Indicate That Ship Is At Work Once More

(Associated Press by Pederal Wireless.) NEW YORK, January 19-Additiona) information from Rio de Janeiro Brazil, leads local shipping men to bebrought by Thomas W. Lawson of a lieve that the fleet German raider which has created consternation in market, adjourned all bearings until and Paris, is the steamer Moewe, which Monday, at the end of yesterday's sealiner off the west const of Africa and, under a prize crew, sent her to Norfolk, hast year.

The Brazilian city also reported last night that it has excellent ground for believing that the British steamer Yar-rowdale, with the crews of eight captured and destroyed Allied vessels, arrived at Sao Vicenti, Cape Verde Isl-This report says the steamer renched that port January 16, but there is no confirmation of the date.

The British navy has sent squadrons of fleet cruisers to comb the sens off the coast where the raider is now thought to be operating.

The possibility that the raider is continning its swift and deadly operations has sent owners of ships and underwriters, as well as shippers of cargoes, into a state of extreme nervous tension fearful hourly of news of further sink ings.

The losses already ascribed to the black-funneled free-lance of the ocean reach fifteen or twenty millions. A cordon of British cruisers, it was reported today, is sweeping the South At-

Various reports come of the identity of the German craft. In some quarters it is believed to be the auxiliary cruiser Vineta; in others, the Moewe, the raid-er which once before slipped through the North Sea patrol and created havor among Allied shipping a year ago.

The possibility that the raider armed and manned the prizes which it took in the form of steamers, and has despatched them somewhere and then con-tinued its mission of preying on hostile merchantmen, is a source on anxiety. The fate of the 4600 ton British steam to the shortage in stocks of sugar held, er Yarrowdale, which is said to be carwere sunk, has not been ascertained.

Caucus of Oahu Solons Decides To Work For Proposed Amendment

The Onhu legislative delegation has taken up for thorough consideration the proposed new city charter, adopted by the charter convention Novembe 12, 1915, and announcement is mad that the proposition will be gone into item by item, in order that the delegation may work as a unit for it when it comes up in the legislature.

A caucus was held Wednesday night, at which virtually all the senators and at which virtually an the selection were preent. Another meeting will be next Wednesday night. At the caucus last Wednesday night several important amendments and changes in the present draft of the charter were suggested and discussed. Among them were the following:

1. That the city supervisors be elected from districts of Honoluluthree from the 4th and three from the The proposed charter provides only six supervisors, all elected at large. 2. That the hold-over system for supervisors in office be adopted, half to remain two years after the other half has passed out, making a four-year term for each group after the

Government Unable To Connect Prisoners With Poppy Juice Found-In Trunk

Arthur Alsina and Jose Ray, suspect ed of being connected with an opium ring, were discharged from custody yesterday by United States Commis-sioner George S. Curry, following an examination that occupied two days. Insufficient evidence to connect them with the importation of opium which was found in a trunk consigned to C H. Castoy and which was confiscated by the United States enston authorities was the reason given by Commissioner Curry for the dismissal of the men. Two pictures, one a photograph and the other a reproduction burned in wood, from which much was expected, failed to help the authorities in fastening any guilt on the two men. Five thousand dollars which is be in held by United States Marshal J J. Smiddy, probably will be returned to the men upon receipt of an order from the court to this effect.

More than $6000 was found in the trunk of one of the men when the officers broke into a house in Manoa valley and arrested Alsina and Ray. Later they brought suit for the return of the money. According to a stipulation with the attorneys $1300 was returned for their defense.
